10. Seven Oaks Hospital - Devotional Ministry: It is now over 35 years since worship services were started at the Seven Oaks facility by Brother Wilfred and Sister Ivy James; later on, by deceased Brother Joe Gumbs alternated leadership. Volunteers were recruited and the members grew to 15 at times. Some have passed away; others have moved out of Winnipeg; others are now "shut-ins"; and new members have filled in the "gap".

Most of the current members are declining in age and are unable to be as active. Others, due to work schedules and other responsibilities cannot attend. This is a vital and important ministry which should not be allowed to die. The patients look forward to attending and respond positively that they have been blessed. Occasionally, others have devoted time to present talks, praise time, special music.

We are appealing to our church members who are able to give some time on the 1st Sunday of each month (10:30-11 am) to assist with keeping alive this vital ministry. July and August are excluded. We need new program coordinators, and encourage you to come and join this worthy ministry.

For further information, please contact:
